YOU MUST DO YOUR PART

On Their Bridal Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Reed visited relatives here from Friday evening until Sunday. The bride was formerly Miss Opal Forsythe, daughter of T. P. Forsythe of this city. She was born and lived here until about eight years ago when the family moved to Oklahoma. She is a charming young lady and has a host of friends here. For several years she had had a splendid position in Oklahoma City. The wedding was there and the young people left at once for Chicago. From that city they came here, leaving Sunday for a short visit with his relatives at Higginsville, from there they will go to their home in Houston, Texas.

The evening of their arrival Miss Marguerite Reid gave an elaborate three course luncheon in their honor. Nine guests were present.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Paul L. Cox entertained for her sister, Mrs. Reed. About twenty ladies were present and a delightful social time was spent. The hostess served brick ice cream and cake.

Entertained.

Mrs. Vesper Buell and daughter entertained Thursday afternoon from three to six at their home in honor of Mrs. Roy Buell of Vandalia and Mrs. Rush Buell, a bride of two weeks.

The house was beautifully decorated with asparagus and maderia vines, and the various rooms brightened by carnations, scarlet sage and nasturtiums.

Mesdames L. M. Wood, J. S. Conway, O. R. Emerson, Mark Smith and Miss Mayne Lewis assisted in entertaining.

Misses Cleo Patton and Ruth Wilson served punch, Misses Marguerite Reid and Lila Haynie had charge of the Victrola and Mrs. W. S. Woodson, Misses Calista Tooley, Edna Boulware and Sallie Wailes served cream, cake and salted nuts in the dining room.

More than a hundred guests were present and pronounced the reception, like the day, an ideal one.

Indoor Picnic a Success.

Owing to the unseasonable weather the Rebekah Lodge failed to have their annual picnic this summer but they made good by taking their dinners to the hall Friday. The day was ideal and many of the country members were able to be present. At noon the plates were served bountifully and after that the dishes were passed so every one had all they could eat of the good things. They served sandwiches, fried chicken, beef loaf, scalloped oysters, pickles, salads, gooseberry and pumpkin pie and coffee.

The ladies had their work and spent a delightful afternoon socially.

Euchre Party.

Mesdames Laura Green and Jamie Hanly entertained on Wednesday evening of last week. The guests played six hand euchre. Ten tables were run.

During the evening brick ice cream and cake were served. A delightful evening was reported.

Don't let it slip your mind! You'll regret it if you do not investigate the extraordinary offerings in table linens, napkins, towels and fancy linens this week and next at Quincy's direct importers of linens.—Kespohl-Mohrenstecher's.

The maid of honor was Miss Irene Tuffli, sister of the bride and Miss Mae Waldron was bridesmaid. Walton Haliburton, of Dexter, New Mexico, was the groomsmen.

After the ceremony a reception was given and the young couple left that night for their home in San Francisco.

Clarence vs Monroe.

The Monroe High School basketball team went to Clarence Saturday and played their girls High School team that afternoon. The score was 27 to 17 in favor of Monroe. After their game the Beaver boys played the Clarence boys. The score was 13 to 12 in favor of Beaver.

The Monroe team speaks in highest praise of the courteous treatment they received in Clarence.

Bobs Cranston, who has had the agency for the Curtis Pub. Co., here for the past two years, has just had quite an honor bestowed upon him by that Company. At certain periods, a limited number of the Curtis Boys, 50,000 strong, are elected to the "Curtis League." The requirements for eligibility to election of the "League" are moral character, school work, business acumen, prompt remittances and salesmanship. Bobs qualified in all of these and has received his badge and certificate of membership. Members of the "League" are promoted to Expert Salesmen then to Master Salesman; members of each grade receive benefits and special privileges, and upon reaching the third, are given a position with some reliable corporation in, or near the boys' home town upon recommendation and by the promise of the Curtis People to do so.

Bobs is not only a little hustler but a little gentleman and will succeed in whatever line of work he takes up.

Glenn Utterback, of near Vandalia, was seriously shot Monday night while in company with several who met to charivari his brother. The injured man climbed to the house roof to place a board over the chimney, and while on the roof a shot was fired by someone on the ground, the entire charge taking effect in the front part of the young man's head. There is little hope of the young man's recovery. He is a son of Price Utterback and married a sister of O. M. Fuqua, of this place.—Center Herald, Oct. 7th. The young man died the following Sunday. He was not conscious from the time he was struck until he passed away.

Golden Wedding.

On Tuesday afternoon Oct. 19th 1915, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Evander McNair celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Boucher tendered their hospitable home for the informal reception for the occasion. During the afternoon they received many friends who came to congratulate this well beloved couple, who by their long residence have become a part of Monroe. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow and white flowers, vines and autumn leaves. A large basket of brides roses was the center piece of the dining table. The golden color scheme was carried throughout the decorations and refreshments. Punch was served during the afternoon. The spacious dining room was filled many times with guests. Yellow and white brick ice cream, cake and mints were served to each one.

The bride and groom of long ago entered to the strains of the wedding march.

Old times songs by a number of those present delighted the hearers from time to time.

Two letters were read, one from the Ministerial Alliance of Monroe City, which accompanied the golden gifts from them and their wives to these honored ones. The other from Rev. Dr. J. H. McNeilly, a life long friend and coworker of Dr. and Mrs. McNair. He expressed his love and esteem in polished sentences and beautiful diction, though he is more than four score years of age.

Dr. McNair responded to these letters, one from the new friends the other from the old friend of long ago. His well chosen words impressed all who heard them. He also expressed the love and gratitude of himself and wife to all who had helped to make of this anniversary such a perfect day.

A large number of letters and telegrams were received and many beautiful gifts as well as a shower of golden coins.
